Elmer L. Meyers High School
Wilkes-Barre, Pennsylvania

Foreword

With this edition of the Colophon we look forward to our future with a feeling of pride. These glorious years we have spent here will be our fondest memories in the future. With each year our school becomes one step more advanced, one step further in producing men and women who will bring pride and praise to the name of Meyers High School.

In this age of doubt, the school is the backbone of the nation. Our years at Meyers will always be of vital importance. With this Colophon, "we raise with honor, glory, love, the royal blue and gold."

Dedication

We, the Class of 1956, dedicate this twenty-sixth issue of the Colophon to Mr. H. Leon Gilbert, Principal of Meyers High School, and Mr. John Davies, Assistant Principal. We take pride in having been the first graduating class under the new administration.

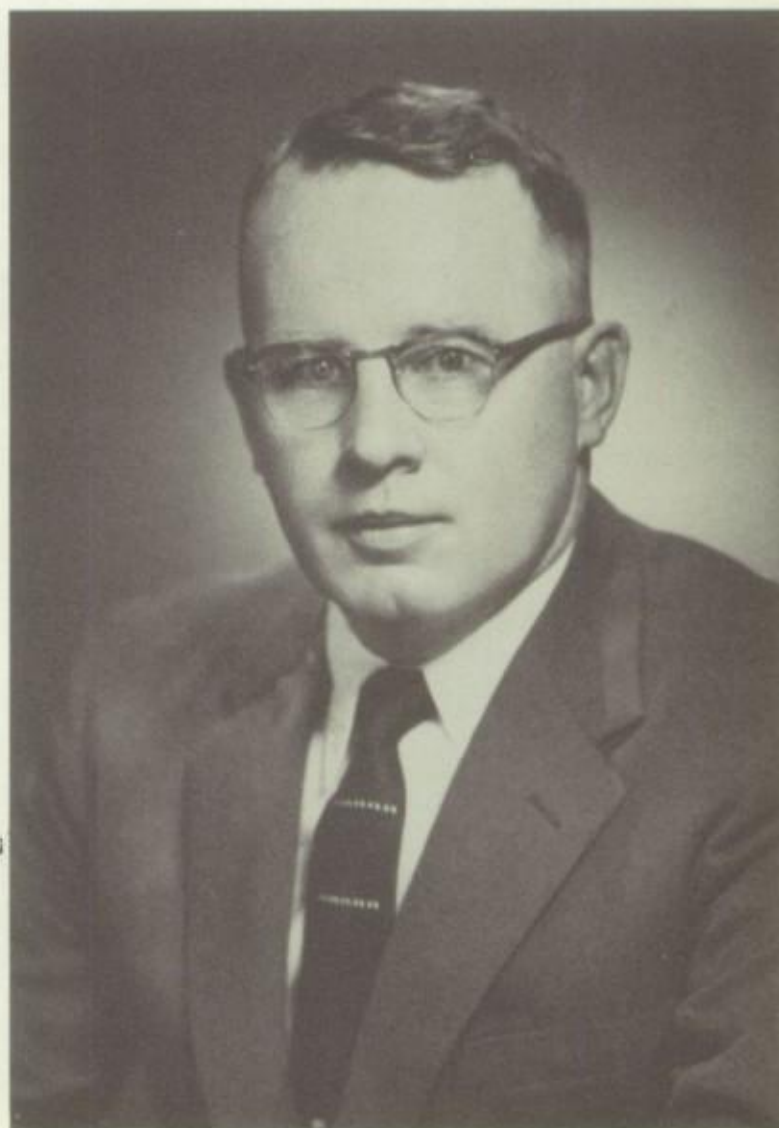

We wish to express our sincere gratitude to our new principal Mr. Gilbert, who through hard work, foresight, and patience has introduced ideas which will continue to make our school one of high and respected standards.

To Mr. John Davies, we extend our appreciation for his tireless work, understanding and deep insight.

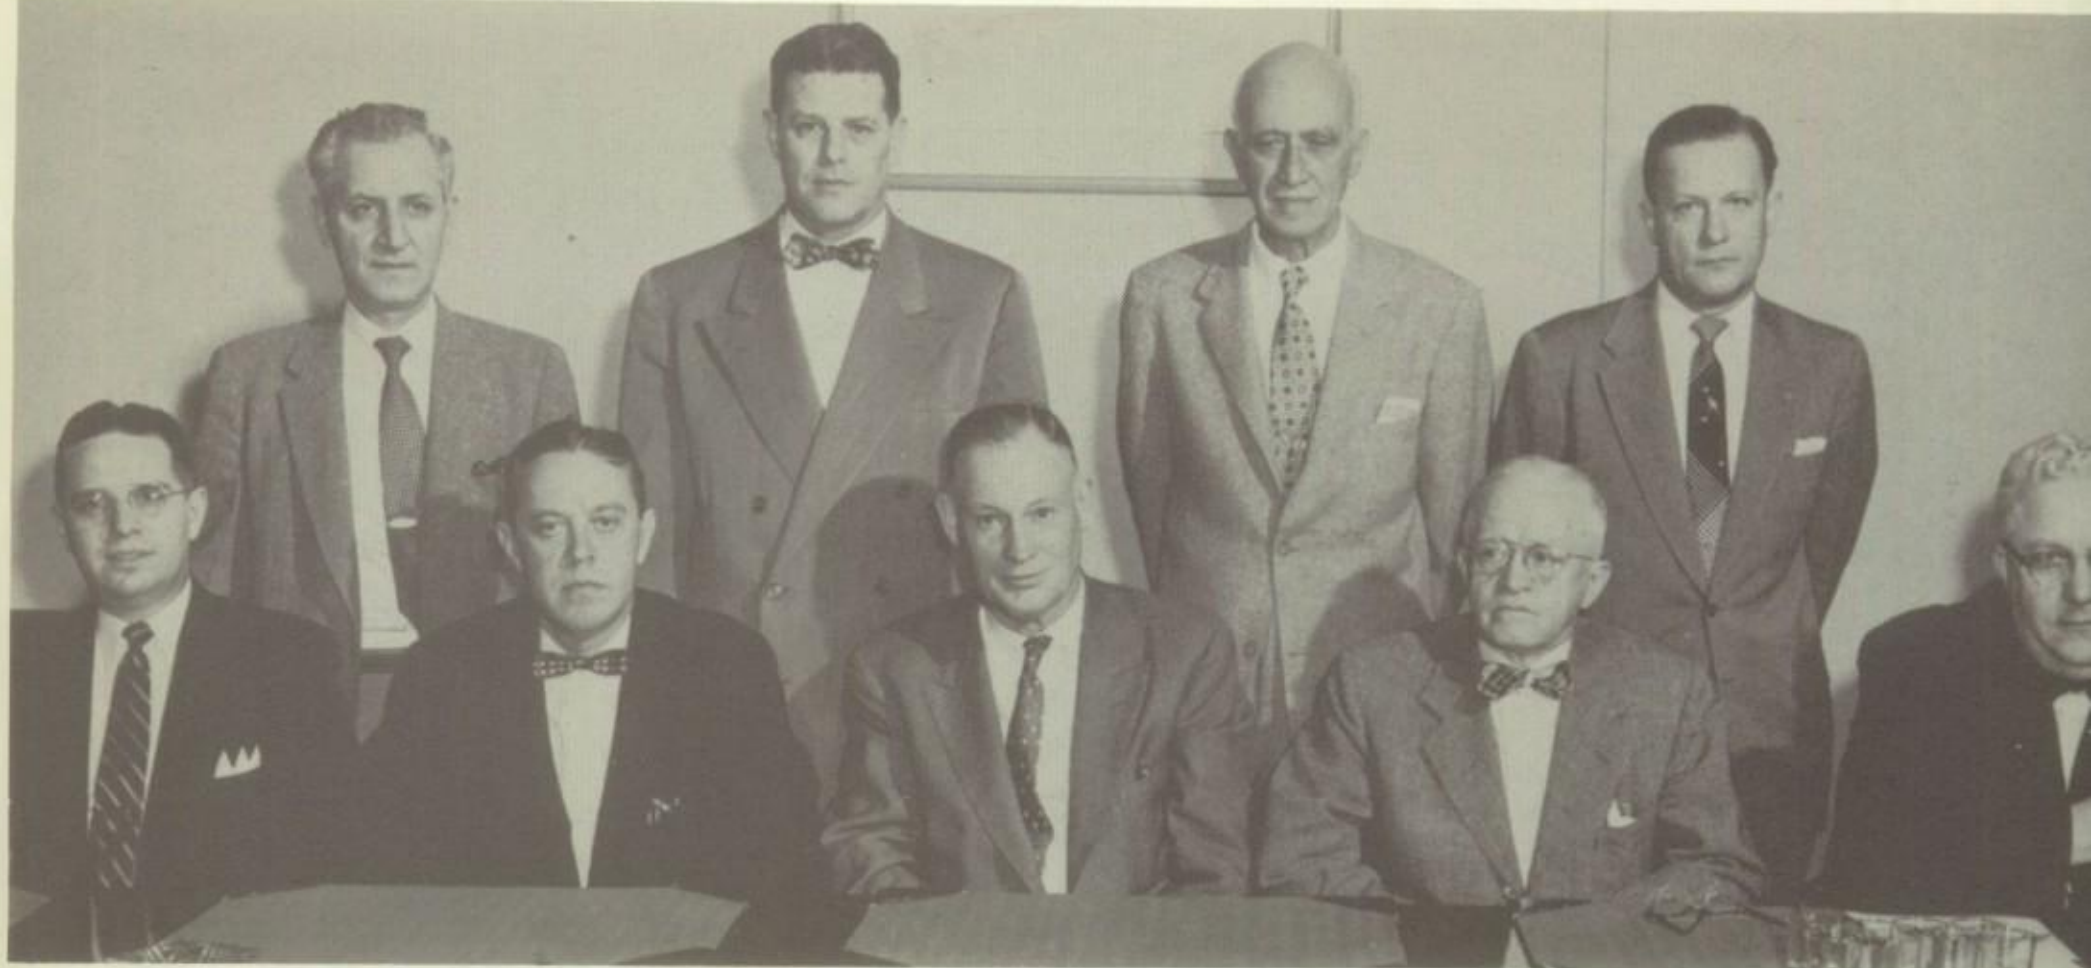

Looking towards the future, we see only good to come to our Alma Mater from the efforts of these men, and we praise them for it.

Miss Marian Hogg

Dean, Director of Activities

One with many responsibilities and each wonderfully fulfilled, Miss Marian Hogg has consistently produced praiseworthy results. Her wit and never failing enthusiasm were indispensable to the Colophon Staff. We thank her sincerely for her warm and helpful guidance. May all she undertakes continue to become an actuality.

MISS GRETCHEN ALLAN
Nurse

Mrs. Mabel Evans Wood

As we look back upon the past years we realize how much of a loss to us Mrs. Wood's marriage and move to Binghamton is to mean.

A graduate of Mansfield State Teacher's College, and Syracuse University, she has also had additional study at Ithaca College of Music, Cornell, Pennsylvania State University, and Wilkes College. Before becoming a faculty member of Meyer's English Department, she taught music at Guthrie and Hoyt.

At Meyers she has served on the Honor Society and Guidance committees among others, has helped develop Scholarship Day, and she arranged and wrote last year's T.V. program which so well portrayed our school.

In the W.B.E.A. she has held important committee chairmanships, and was a four year delegate to P.S.E.A. She has given frequent addresses on the status of women and youth conservation before women's groups, P.T.A.'s, Wyoming Valley Women's Club, and others out of town. She is also an official board member of the First Methodist Church, and chairman of the Carpenter Memorial Concert Committee.

As we say farewell to her as a member of our faculty, we know her time and talents will continue to serve others wherever she may go.

Mr. Warren Brown

The absence of Mr. Warren Brown, a member of our faculty, was greatly discernable this year. As physics teacher, Mr. Brown was regarded as a highly educated man by the students. He was a graduate of the University of California. His children were Meyers students.

He is the possessor of a heroic record in World War I, and his very shy manner and retiring disposition seem hardly understandable when we realize what a force for good he really was. Always a gentleman and always a good sport wherever he was, we know that his students in New Jersey will value his supervision as we did here.

Mr. Ralph Wood

As head of the machine shop for the past twenty six years, Mr. Wood has displayed skill as well as the necessary understanding and patience so valuable in the teaching profession. He attended the Wilkes-Barre City schools, and received his Mechanical Engineering degree through the Penn State Extension and Scranton Correspondence Schools. Mr. Wood's family also attended Meyers.

The exhibitions of work accomplished by his students have been exceptional, and show him to be a real artist in metal, and able to pass on his knowledge to devoted students. We will always regard our association with him as a very valuable experience.

Mr. John Dukes

Retiring from the position of chief custodian, which he has held for twenty six years, Mr. John Dukes leaves Meyers with a host of friends. While Mr. Dukes has been at Meyers, his children and now his grandchildren have been students. Besides being employed here at Meyers, Mr. Dukes was also a member of the Maintenance Staffs of Grant, North Main, and G.A.R. schools. He will long be thought of with admiration and appreciation.

So much has depended upon him, and he has given us so much that was extra and above the call of duty that we can feel that Meyers could hardly have gotten along without him. He has a place in our remembrance that will never be filled.

ASSOCIATED WITH MR. DUKES ARE ROBERT DAVIS, GOMER JONES, ROBERT YOUNG, ALBERT MILZ, AND CARL STEINHAEUER.

Words by Ellen Roberts '32 Alma Mater ^{Meyers} High School Music by Mrs Annette Gilbert

The first system of musical notation consists of two staves. The top staff is in treble clef with a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a common time signature (C). The bottom staff is in bass clef with the same key signature and time signature. The music is written in a style typical of early 20th-century school songs, featuring block chords and simple melodic lines.

Chorus

The second system of musical notation, labeled 'Chorus', continues the two-staff format. It begins with a double bar line and a repeat sign. The melody in the treble staff features a series of eighth and sixteenth notes, while the bass staff provides a steady harmonic accompaniment with block chords.

The third system of musical notation continues the chorus. It maintains the two-staff structure. The treble staff has a more active melody with some grace notes, and the bass staff continues with a solid harmonic support.

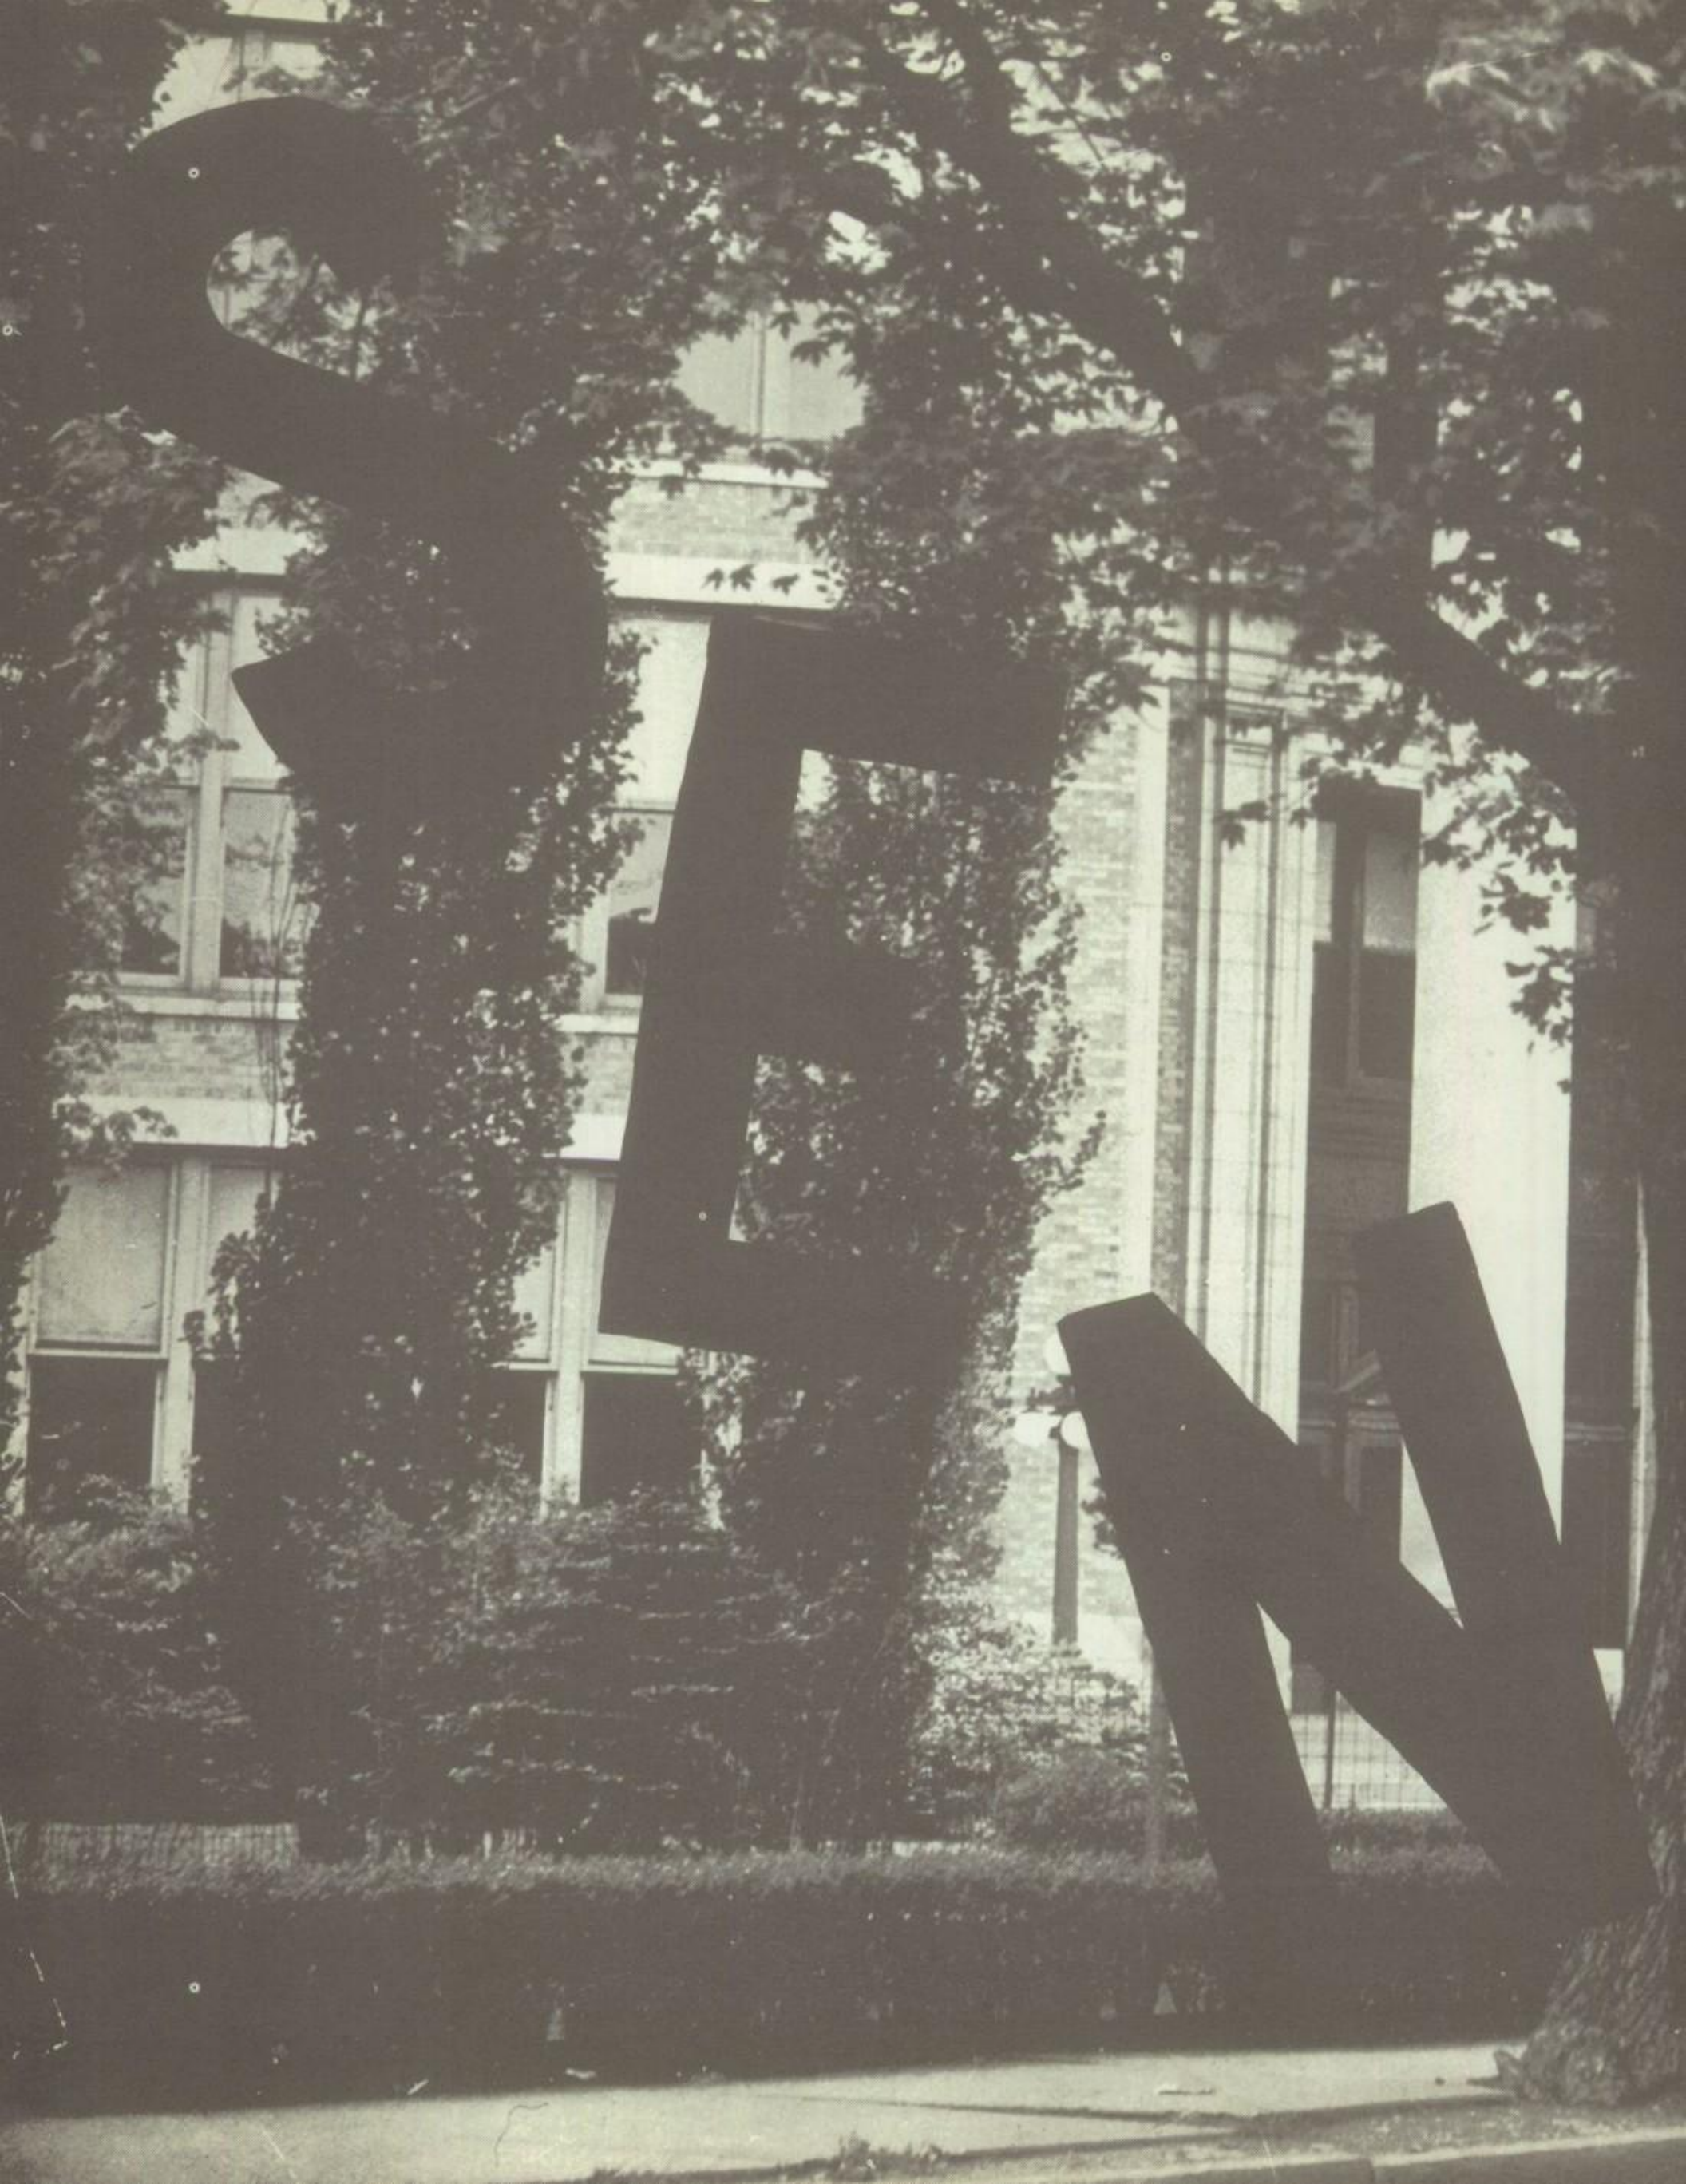

From hall and class thy students come,
 From fields thy warriors bold
 To raise with honor, glory, love,
 The royal blue and gold.
 So now, to dear old Meyers High,
 We proudly stand and sing,
 While clear against the azure blue,
 Thy honored name we fling.

When we must leave thy guiding hand,
 To take our place in life,
 Then we will keep thy honor clear,
 Through all our joy and strife
 And when the hand of memory
 Rolls back time's gathering haze,
 We'll pause once more, as now we do,
 To sing again thy praise.

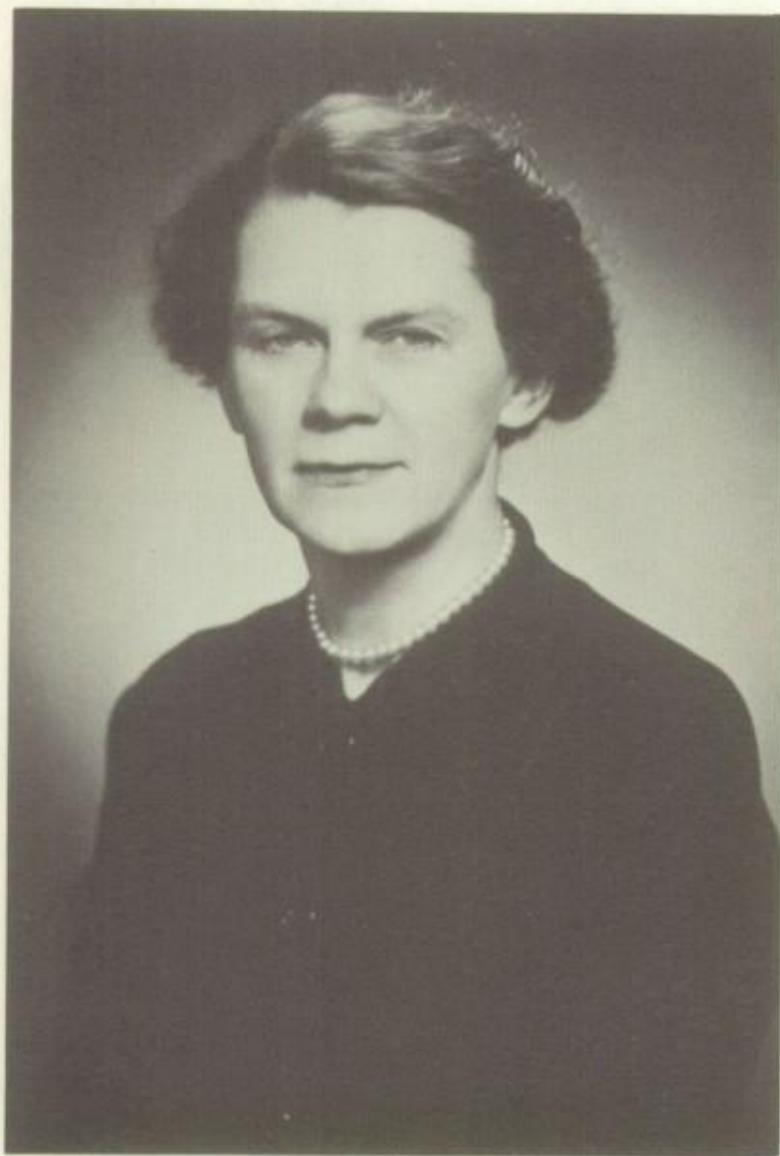

Chorus

Loud and long
 Let us raise the song of glory
 As thy banners of truth
 Proudly fly
 On through life, in our hearts
 We will cherish
 Steadfast forever,
 Meyers High.

Miss Casimir Tyburski

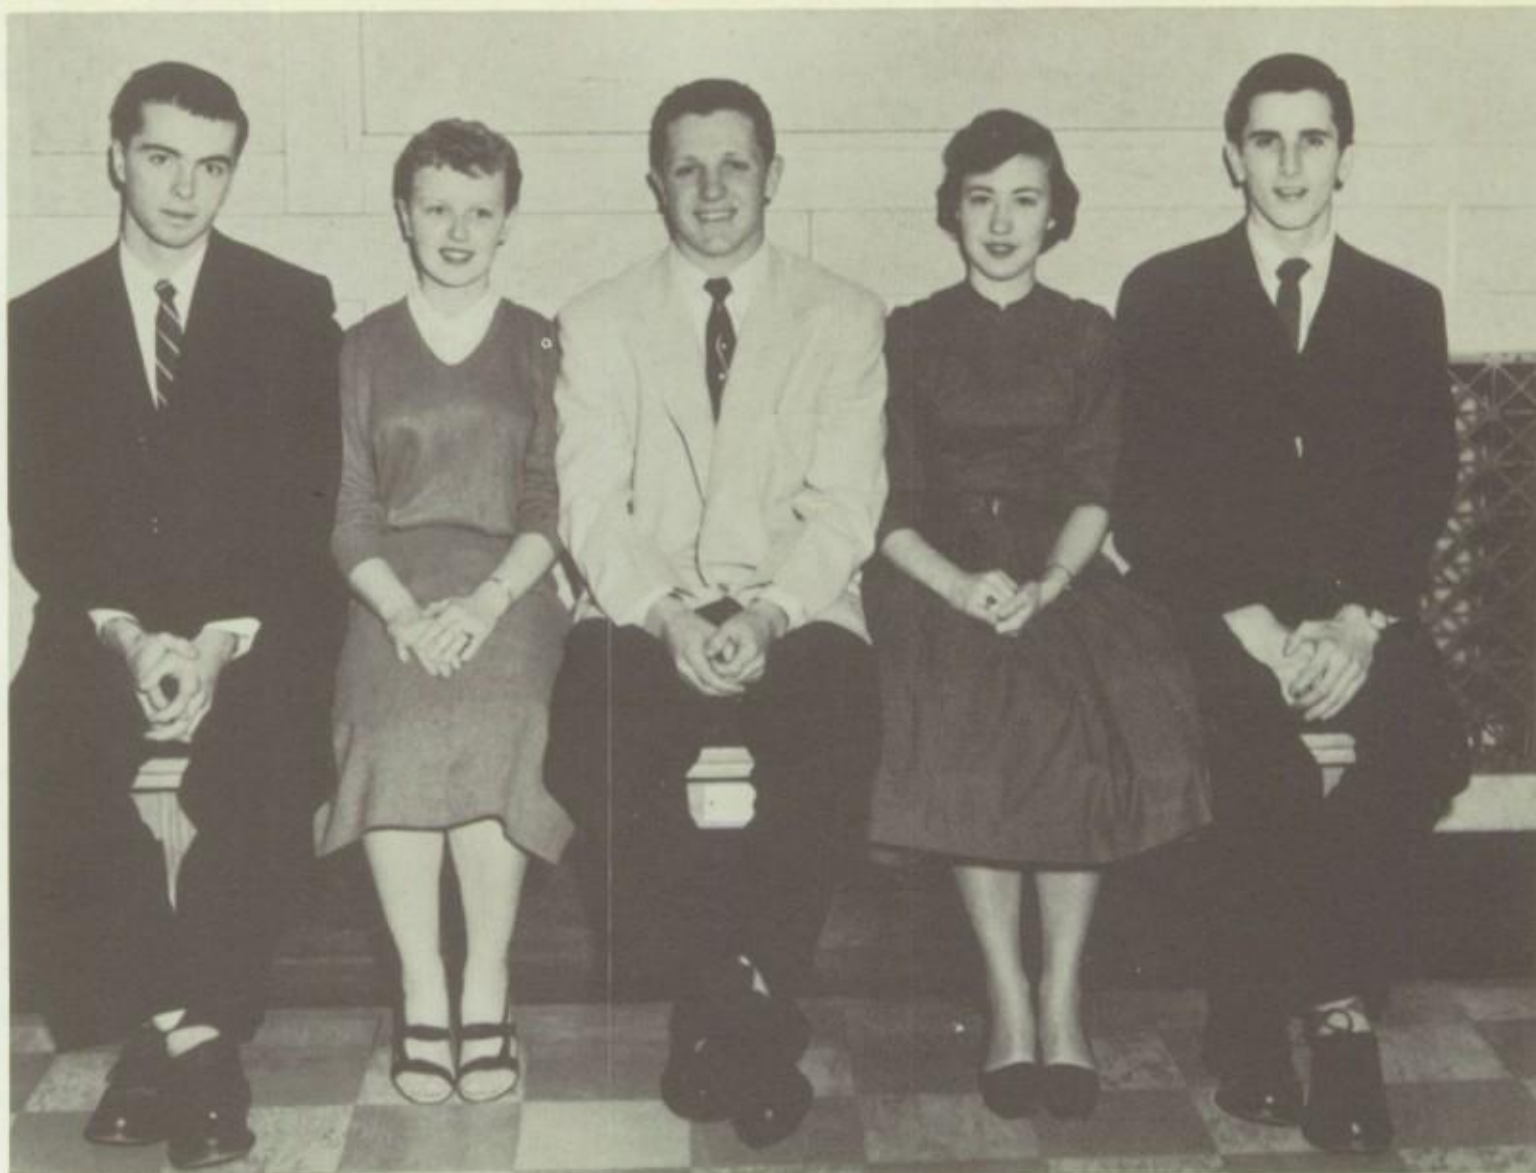

Class Advisors

We, the graduating class, would like to salute Miss Casimir Tyburski, and Mr. Fuller Grenawalt, who so willingly led us through our senior activities and problems. We are grateful to them for their sage judgement, understanding, and fine spirit. For now and always they will be regarded not only as teachers, but as two inspiring friends.

Mr. Fuller Grenawalt

Officers

JOHN BRISLIN, Vice-president; ANITA PAPSON, Secretary;

John Brislin, Anita Papson. Second Row—Mary Ann DeGuisto, Joyce Bona, Laurene Grenawalt, Carole Lewis, George Line. Third Row—Thomas Muchler, Fred Hartwigsen, Mary James, Joseph Wnorowski.

KENNETH ABOD

"I see that the fashion wears out more apparel than the man." Dark, handsome, stunning dresser, and admired by all for his helpfulness whenever a problem arises, because of his intelligence and understanding.

CAROL ALLABAUGH

"Silence is more musical than song." Carol's unassuming manners have made her friend to all. There's no doubt as to whether or not she'll be a hit. With a cute face, lovely hair, and kind words, how can she miss?

ROBERT AMORY

"Silence is one of the virtues of wisdom." Bob is one of those attractive people we don't know enough about, simply because of his quiet, reserved manner and the fact that he is nice to everyone.

MICHAEL ANTONACCI

"To the stars through difficulties." Fun-loving to the point of mischief,—that's our Mike. Lucky, carefree, tall, dark-haired, with a grin always adorning his face.

ALAYNE ASHTON

"Happiness consists of agreeable consciousness." Peppy, pert and pretty, sweet, neat and petite, copper tresses encircling a cute face. Can you think of anything to beat it?

SHIRLEY AYOUB

"Speech flowed from her lips sweeter than honey." A pretty miss with a smiling sense of humor and a personality that pleases and is good for everyone.

BARBARA BACHMAN

"For all her luxury was doing good." This intelligent lass was one of the first in line when grey matter was handed out. Her scholastic ability equals her quiet, sincere character.

RICHARD BANTA

"Deeds, not words." A rollicking remark and its none other than Dick. He has kept many classes joyful and when he becomes prominent in the engineering field, with his quick thinking and whimsical ways, there will never be a dull moment.

MARILYN BARBER

"Things are seldom what they seem." A tall, attractive, blond, with a pleasant tendency toward shyness. Marilyn gets along with just about everybody, and just about everybody thinks she's great. Her wonderful violin playing was an asset to the orchestra.

NANCY BEISEL

"Performed to a T." Nancy was one of our pretty majorettes who captured the eyes of all the boys. We know she has the necessary qualifications to succeed in whatever she may endeavor to do.

BARBARA BIRKENHEAD

"Beauty is nature's brag." Just look at that creamy complexion. It's the envy of many a miss. This gal has been the capable manager of many sport teams. We know her silence will truly be her golden path.

BETTY JANE BOGDAN

"A rose with all its sweetest leaves yet folded." This young miss is one of the sweetest natured members of our class. Her everlasting smile and pleasing personality make her well liked by all.

JOYCE BONA

"Her virtues were so rare." Sweet as a flower and cute as a rose, that's Joyce. Her friends are unlimited for her disposition has won her many companions. She's a lovely girl and we'll all remember her.

MARY BORYS

"Great thoughts come from the heart." Amiable lassie, quiet and modest, but radiating a certain quality of friendliness. Easy to get along with, this happy-go-lucky gal gains many friends on every hand.

JOHN BRISLIN

"He attains the unattainable." Popular, well dressed, wonderful personality are only some of Bris's many pleasing traits. Bris proved his popularity and leadership when he was elected our class Vice President.

THOMAS BROWN

"In an easy cause any man may be eloquent." "What will be, will be" is Tom's attitude toward life. Although he's easy-going, Tom gets things done. With his attitude and winning ways he'll have friends wherever he goes.

RONALD BURDEN

"Lofty souls can smile at fate." Ronnie always takes life easily and never worries about anything or does he just like us to think that? He is certainly well-liked by the teachers and students at Meyers.

JOSEPH BUTKIEWICZ

"To climb steep hills requires low pace at first." Joe is quite a guy on the football field or on the track team. We know he'll do well in whatever he attempts. With his sense of humor and big, broad shoulders, he's one mighty, sure-to-be successful guy.

GLEN CHAPMAN

"It is no great plague to be too handsome a man." Glen is that very easy to look at fellow with the smile that really attracts the girls. His guitar playing and singing will capture any audience that has the good fortune to hear him.

RHONA CHENETZ

"Woman's at best a contradiction still." It has been said that people with a strong desire to get places usually do. If this is true, we'd like you to meet a designer of the future. You can't miss if you fashion your future the way you fashion your designs.

LAWRENCE CHOPER

"A little nonsense now and then is relished by the best of men." Live, laugh, and be happy is probably Larry's motto. Whenever there is a chance for jesting, Larry takes advantage of it. Larry's talents aren't limited either, and if you saw the Senior Play, you'll know what we mean.

RHODA CHRISTIAN

"Let truth and reason speak." Tall, attractive and possessing a countenance worthy of many repeated glances, not too much of a talker, but then "little said is most accomplished." May your road to happiness be ever lighted.

RICHARD COBB

"Art is power." Tall, handsome and fun loving describes our Dick. Almost everyone knows him as active in football and track, though his ambition is to become a commercial advertising artist.

JOHN COURSEN

"Young in limbs, in judgment wise." It has been said, "Silence is a virtue"—we firmly believe this in John's case. Here is a good-looking boy with a talent of knowing what to say and when to say it,—and more important—when not to.

NANCE CRAZE

"Neat not gaudy." A hazel eyed beauty with talents to match. Nance's personality and understanding character make her a great friend to have. She's tops with all—we hope her career will still reflect glory on all of us.

WALTER CYPHERS

"Merit wins the soul." If the merry people are the nicest people then Walter is just the tops. In spite of all his jesting, he manages to keep up his marks and participate in many activities.

CAROL DAUBERT

"Upon the cunning loom of thought I weave my fancies." Small in stature, but oh! so sweet. Carol has the unique charm of deriving pleasure from the simple and plain things in life. We are sure that life has many good things in store for you. Your charm will be your fortune.

FRANCES MARY ANN DeGUISTO

"Often a silent face has words." "Dee Gee" as she is better known is a cute, little package who can jazz up a piano. Does her future show her a perfect nurse with that winning smile and helping hand?

EDITH DENNIS

"Great thoughts, like great deeds, need no trumpet." A dash of laughter, spoonful of honey pinch of personality and looks which are plentiful and we have Dee Dee. She is the girl who has what it takes to be on the top of the list whatever she does.

JOYCE DETTMORE

"Nods and becks and wreathed smiles." Vim, vigor and vitality are Joyce's qualities and she possesses them in abundance. This cute strutter will always strut her way into the hearts of all whom she meets.

GERALD DOHL

"Strike while the iron is hot." Laugh and the world laughs with you. Jerry with your perpetual smile and always that bounding "hi"! Such a magnetic personality is a blessing.

JOSEPH DONNELLY

"By blood, a scholar, at heart, a clown." Joe isn't what we might call the most enthusiastic student, but he surely is enthusiastic when it comes to being nice. He is just about the best sport we know, and his handsome smile has captivated many a female heart.

WAYNE DOWLING

"He possessed a peculiar talent of producing an effect in whatever he said or did." And we all appreciate the effect, - be it made with his talents, his intelligence, or that echoing trombone of his. Truly he is an "Ace" in our class.

KAY DOYLE

"But still her tongue ran on." She is always bubbling and full of excitement, and everyone knows where she spends all her spare time—having fun of course.

JOSEPH DRESS

"Life has set no landmarks before him." With a quiet humor, well balanced with a sincere attitude, Joe always puts his best foot forward toward a happy future.

FRANKLIN DANIEL ECKROTE

"Increasing wisdom with each studious year." Small he is, but his million dollar personality surely makes up for it anytime. Dan has proved this by so many things we could not be able to enumerate them.

JAMES ELLIOTT

"Disputing inch by inch." Jim is a boy of many words, and he has absolute confidence in his convictions. He has startled many a classroom with his arguments. We think he'll be long remembered.

JANICE EVANS

"My own thoughts are my companions." Shy? Quiet? You would never know it by the flock of friends Janice has. When you get to know her too, you will find that she is a swell gal who is full of fun.

ROBERT EVERETT

"The mildest manners and the gentlest heart." Bob has no favorite among his friends. He's nice to all, and wouldn't hesitate, if asked to do a favor. Studies are an important part of Bob's activities, so we're sure this portends a prosperous future.

RACHEL FAIRCHILD

"Govern with thy appetite." "Rach" is one gal who isn't afraid to express her own opinions. She's a firm believer in frankness, and we think this is an admirable trait, if slightly disconcerting.

CARL FANNON

"A tender heart; a will inflexible." Don't be fooled by Carl's quietness. He's really a boy with great potentialities. He was a fast moving member of the football team, and a great asset. Oh, he's handsome too!

DONALD FELL

"While I am speaking the hour flies." The library is where you'll most likely find Donny. When he's not in the library he can usually be found joking with his classmates or intently studying in a world alone. Quite a contradiction in characteristics.

PATRICIA FENIMORE

"Action is eloquence." The Golden Rule is this gal's motto. Pat's a girl with a bale full of nice things like helping others, sympathizing with them, and laughing at their corny jokes.

JANET FENSTERMACHER

"Music exalts each joy, allays each grief." This trim, neatly dressed miss can be heard singing a tune at almost anytime. Janet's musical talents made her an outstanding member of the choir. We recommend one dose of Janet's understanding to put any patient in tip top shape.

GERALDINE FIRDA

"Silence is sweeter than speech." Ah! how true are these words. For the charms of her calm, quiet manner have captured for her many a friend. One with such fine qualities always sets fine examples for others.

JANET FLUEGEL

"Music has charms." Tiny she is, but her talent is great. The melodies that come forth from her flute are wonderful, and in the future we see her successfully guiding her students.

HELEN FLYTE

"The silence that accepts merit is the highest applause." When efficiency and brains were handed out Geraldine certainly got her share. Gerry was an outstanding office assistant, and we know that some lucky boss will be quite fortunate in gaining this little miss, for as long as he can keep her.

RICHARD FOLTZ

"Strong in performance." Dick, who is a new member of our class, has acquired more friends in a few months than most people do in a lifetime. One of the most brilliant boys of our class. Always smiling and happy. Success is not just around the corner, it's here already.

KAY GABLE

"Her sincerity is her delight." Kay tries to please everyone, and she usually does, for no one can resist her charming manner. In the distant future there is matrimony for Kay, but nearer still are many exciting times.

LINDA GELB

"Bashful sincerity." Peppy, and happy-go-lucky, Linda, those smiles and cheery hello's have a wonderful effect on those to whom they are given. Just ask any of Linda's many friends, they'll tell you.

JOLYN GIBBON

"The magic of her face." This petite lass likes to daydream, and who doesn't. A very attractive gal with lovely blonde hair, and a friendly smile for everyone is a perfect description of Jolyn.

JOSEPH GILLIGAN

"Nothing happier can be found." What can be better proof of a wonderful personality than an abundance of friends. Friends galore Joe does have and his humor and quick wit are the reason why.

ELAINE GILSKY

"Give me a book that does my soul embrace." This little bundle of smiles haloed with golden tresses is a friend to all. The Kegian Society has had the good fortune in possessing Elaine as an interested and capable worker.

PATRICIA GRAZIANO

"She looks as if butter would melt in her mouth." We love a parade, we love a cute little majorette who leads it, too. That's our Pat. With her sparkling smile and pleasant manner, her popularity will go on into the future.

ROSALYN GREENWALD

"A heart whose softness harmonized the whole." Lovely to look at, delightful to know, that's Roz. Her pleasing personality, sweet smile and friendly disposition make her someone we'll never forget.

LAURENE GRENAWALT

"Time strengthens friendships." Versatile is the adjective that can best describe Laurene. This friendly miss is willing to try her hand at almost anything. She has participated in sports as well as choir and many other activities. May you continue to retain your charms.

PATRICIA GUIDA

"She loves all that's lovely." Pat is quiet and reserved, but her sweet friendly ways seem to accumulate friends. Everyone will remember her for trying to do what pleases everyone.

JEROME GUTTERMAN

"The cautious seldom err." Jerry is one of those people you just can't help liking. He always has a cheery "hi" for everyone. We are only to sure that success and happiness will always be with him.

ROBERT GUZIEJKA

"Chewing the food of sweet and bitter fancy." This joking jester adds zest to any classroom. His easy manner and humorous remarks make him well-liked. He has been active in wrestling and gym team exhibitions. His life will be filled with many contradictory ambitions.

JUDITH HALL

"The hand that hath made you fair, hath made you good." Judy is shy and reserved but her unassuming manner seems to accumulate friends. This miss is known as the Grace Kelly of the senior class. How true!

PEARL HARBAY

"Heaven in her eyes." Pearl was one of our attractive cheerleaders. Her brilliant smile and radiant personality are a few of her many assets. Ask anyone who knows her they'll simply say she's great.

LEO HARKINS

"Gaily the troubadour touched his guitar." Here comes the man with the banjo. It's not exactly a banjo but Leo surely is great on the guitar. A combination of a warm and sincere personality has made Leo liked and admired by all.

JAMES HARRIS

"Too long is spent in the sounding jargon of the schools." Redheaded fellow, a perpetual prankster with an air of innocence is our Jimmy. You'll easily see how popular he is just by his many pals.

MARIAN HARRIS

"Promise is most given when the least is said." "Boo," though somewhat quiet always has a compliment, a kind word, and cheery hello for everyone. Many a friend has she because of her amicable personality. She's also quite attractive—ask the gentlemen.

FRED HARTWIGSEN

"Endurance, foresight, strength and skill." If you know Fred you have to like him. He is hard working and industrious. An honor student and Council member, Fred is respected and admired by all. You definitely deserve the best—it's bound to come your way.

EDWARD HASSEL

"Enjoy the present day, trusting very little to the morrow." Eddy is one of the mysterious men of our class. We don't know much about him, but we do know that he's nice to all—fun loving too.

DOROTHY HICKMAN

"A fair exterior is a silent recommendation." This pretty miss always has a smile and a good word for everyone, and people treat her the same way. Dotty's fondness for fine music is only one of her varied interests.

BOYD HOATS

"They are never alone that are accompanied with noble thoughts." "Porky" is just about the most well liked male in our class. Bearing the title of Class President is sure proof of this. This amiable lad was a pride on our football team, and we're sure he'll be a pride to the future.

MARJORIE HOFFNER

"She was just the quiet kind." Marge, the quiet miss with the ready smile, is always one you can depend on when she is needed. Here's wishing you the best life has to offer because you're always willing to give others your best.

RICHARD HOLODICK

"The heart is its own fate." Quiet but friendly, this lad's great and unique sense of humor is equal only to his ability to acquire friends. It is an assurance that his career as a radio technician will be as great as he made his high school days.

GERTRUDE HOOVER

"Can there be so fair a creature founded of common clay." Quiet, sincere and friendly describes our "Gertie". Modern Choir and Kegian Society are only a few of her many activities. With her wonderful record in academics she was always on top.

MERLE HORNE

"To be strong is to be happy." Merle is one of those people who are just plain nice. He has no complaints about life, and finds himself with numerous friends. Our time machine shows positive pictures of a sound future.

JANE HOUSER

"Charms strike the eye and merit wins the soul." "Janie" is that tall, well dressed gal with the radiant smile. This intelligent gal rates good sports and music tops on her list of pleasures—you are tops too, "Janie."

BARBARA HUFFORD

"A little body often harbors a great soul." The nicest things come in tiny packages. We have absolute proof in Barb. Small she is in stature, but big in character, with a glowing personality.

CHARLES HUGHES

"Labor conquers all things." Reserved but intelligent is our guy Charles. Quiet determination plus foresight are sure to produce startling results. Need we say more.

DANIEL HUGHES

"Never let the fancy roam; pleasure always is at home." Blond haired, and always ready with some amusing quip, you bet it's Dan. He can generally be found managing some sport team. Entering his father's electrical business in Dan's hope for the future. May all your sparks shine brightly.

JOAN HUNTZINGER

"She never studied to be fairer than nature made her." Curley locks, happy face, and pert figure, all wrapped up in one sweet package. Joanie loves the commercial studies and excels in them, naturally. You're one who'll be remembered.

MARY JAMES

"And younde sits a maiden, the fairest of the fair." This is Mary to a "T". This tall, attractive blonde is known for her beautiful smile and wonderful personality. With her friendly ways, Mary has made many lasting friendships at Meyers.

WILLIAM JAMES

"Wise men say nothing in dangerous times." Silence is the virtue that many people aren't lucky enough to possess. Bill does, and it's certainly to his advantage. He's nice to all, but in his own quiet way.

ANN JAMIESON

"There is a time of speaking." Quality not quantity counts, that's Ann's belief. This quiet gal might not say much, but when she does you can be sure it's worthwhile listening to.

VANCE JOHNSON

"Silence is golden." Vance, though quiet and reserved, is liked by everyone. Small in stature, but big in heart.

THELMA KELLER

"Generous trust in human kind." Pep, vim, and vigor are Thelma's claims to fame. It's a rare moment when this happy strutter can be seen without a smile. Your jokes and cheerful disposition have made you a notable of our class.

WILLIAM KELLER

"Then he will talk, how he will talk." Terrific wit topped off with a blonde crew cut, that's "Shelb". Always ready to crack a joke and usually does as his popularity shows.

MARGARET KENNEDY

"Reputation is but a synonym of popularity." Marge is one of our attractive cheerleaders. Her beautiful violin music is well known to everyone as she participated in both State and District Orchestra Festivals. She possesses a kind heart and dynamic personality which will help her throughout life.

JOAN KIERNAN

"Beauty is kind as well as charming." Joanie is one of those people whom you just can't help liking. She's always smiling and with her dynamic personality she has friends galore. Joanie has been active in almost everything all through school, especially as assistant editor of the Elphinstone print and member of Colophon staff. With her beauty and brains, she'll soar to the top.

JOHN JOSEPH KLEIN

"Gentle to others, to himself severe." "Conch" is one of our most popular seniors. His shyness is really a cover up for his great personality. We wish Conch loads of luck although not much is needed because of his ability to get along with all.

MARTIN JOHN KLEIN

"He fights against imaginary giants." Tall, dark, and handsome describes Marty. He is called as a powerful star quarterback and lived up to his well-deserved reputation on the basketball court.

MARVIN KLINE

"Men seldom rebel against anything that does not deserve it." Quiet can best describe Marv. However, Marv has a way of winning friends wherever he goes. This conservative guy is our choice for success in the world.

MARY LOUISE KNORR

"To speak and purpose so." You can always be sure of a big smile and friendly word from Mary Lou. She tries to please everyone and usually does.

MARTIN KRANSON

"Content to follow when we lead the way." Marty is a true friend to everyone in the class. Although he is somewhat shy and quiet, he always has a smile and good word for all.

FANNY KRAUSS

"She excels all women in the magic of her locks." Fanny, the "Goldy Locks" of our class, is big sister to all. Among her many activities are included treasurer of the choir and president of the F.T.A. She can do a thousand things and would love to have them all going on at one time.

MARY ALYCE LANGE

"I will capture your mind with sweet novelty." Every class has a clown, and ours has the privilege of boasting an exceptionally pretty one. There's no need for going into detail about Mary's personality because one word will describe it: magnetic.

MARILYN LA ROSE

"She hath a tear for pity." Sweet, friendly, and adorable are a few of the adjectives that describe Marilyn. To those who know her well, she's not really so quiet.

EVELYN LEBOWITZ

"The sum of earthly bliss." "Evie" is a gal who has what it takes to get to the top. Everyone knows her for her wit and humor which should certainly brighten her way through life.

PAUL LEVIN

"Watch your opportunity." Tall, dark haired and well liked describe Paul to a "T". His cheerful disposition, carefree manner and wit have won for him many lasting friendships.

CAROLE LEWIS

"True eloquence consists in saying all that is necessary." Paging Madame Curie. It's not everyday you can find an adorable gal with an excess of intelligence. Carole's versatility was displayed as Editor-in-Chief of the Colophon and participation in sports throughout the year. We know this amiable miss will someday be a great—well everything!

GEORGE LINE

"Virtue is bold and goodness never fearful." Intelligent, witty, and teasing describe Liney, one of the greatest guys one could hope to meet. He always has a joke to liven up the classroom. He has been admired by many which was proved when he was elected President of the Student Council.

CARL LUCAS

"What is the end of study? Let me know." Carl is the type of person who enjoys helping others whenever he can. His main ambition is to take life easy and enjoy it. Friend to all.

ALLEN LUSTER

"He is not in the roll of common men." Handsome, intelligent, happy-go-lucky, that's Al. His great number of friends and admirers prove his popularity. He possesses a zestful manner and magnetic personality.

ROSEMARY MALLOY

"And proved it no matter what she said." Rosemary is quiet yet sincere with a multitude of friends. She is willing to help everyone at all times and usually does.

PATRICIA MARRASH

"We dread the day when time shall turn those amber locks to gray." Good things come in small packages and here is proof. Pat has a smile and cheerful "hi" for all. Pert, peppy Pat.

HELEN MARTIN

"The rose that all are praising." Fun-loving and gay is Helen. Her dislikes are few and with her sweet personality she will always be surrounded with a multitude of friends.

MARY ANN MASAVAGE

"As merry as the day is long." "Masav" is one of our capable athletes, girls' teams naturally, although she does score with the boys. Not only does she aid her team to victory, but does it with a willing smile. A real peppy personality and good wit are hers also.

JILL MASSENGILL

"Soft, contemplative and kind." This young miss was one of our colorful cheerleaders. Her ability in making friends is equalled only by her charming ways. She has an understanding smile which will always win for her many friends.

MARY LOUISE McDANIELS

"She never lacked a good word." This quiet miss has a sweet disposition and is always willing to help anyone with a problem. With her modest personality and winning ways she will achieve anything she attempts to do.

WILLIAM McDANIELS

"His spirit grew robust." On the football field Mickey is a powerhouse. His genial personality and frolicsome attitude are surpassed only by his excellence in sports. "Onward to victory."

HAROLD McDERMOTT

"Habit forms character and character is destiny." Harold is one of our fun-loving seniors who is known by all. Harold's friendly "hi" is one of his many assets which will help him to attain success.

NANCY MCGROARTY

"She follows the signs of the times." Nancy is always laughing. She certainly is a tonic to anyone who may feel depressed. The best in life will always be hers.

JOHN MCGOWAN

"Truth exists for the wise." This tall, dark, and handsome young man excels in many things. His magnetic personality and subtle humor make him well liked by all. Mac is an honor student and will always be on top with all.

WILLIAM MATUS

"The observed of all observers." As Treasurer of the Senior Class, Bill has given ample proof that he's quite a popular boy. His good looks and terrific garb have made many a female heart flutter.

PAUL MEEHAN

"The world's great men have not commonly been great scholars." A blond Hercules with a winning smile is our Paul. He's a living ray of wit and friendship appreciated by all who know him. Memories of Paul will last with his friends forever.

JAMES MILES

"To know how to hide one's ability is great skill." If good looks are said to be an asset, then Jim is certainly fortunate. He is also the proud possessor of a definitely sparkling personality.

ROBERT MILFORD

"Come, give us a taste of your quality." Bob's ability for playing that "cool" guitar has won admiration from all. He is one of those persons you can't help liking. Although on the shy side Bob's friendly manner is liked by all who know him.

MONCEY MILLER

"There is music in all things." Who's the cute gal with the chic figure, and cheery greeting?—Moncey of course. She has been active in many activities including Band and Choir. This year AllState Chorus had the good fortune of Moncey's presence—why not, just listen to her voice.

CHARLES MONTGOMERY

"Whatever is worth doing at all is worth doing well." "Doc's" wonderful voice and charming personality will linger in the hearts of his friends. His quick thinking and witty remarks will always make Charlie the center of attraction wherever he may be.

THOMAS MUCHLER

"His heart set upon a goal not on a prize." Just listen to that "cool" clarinet—that's Tommy you hear. Not only has Tommy been an outstanding member of the Band, Choir, and Orchestra, but has been an outstanding student.

BEVERLY NAGLE

"A thirst to know and understand." When grey matter was handed out, Bev was up in front. Her charming and sincere character are matched with her warm personality. This strutter has excelled in many fields and will continue all during life.

EUGENIE NARDONE

"Feet that will run willing errands." This is certainly fitting for Jennie. She is one of those people who is willing to do anything for a friend. With her sweet personality and pleasing manner she will always be surrounded by friends.

EVA NEUBERGER

"She doesn't desire to confine her words." Eva's antics have certainly added much spice to our class. Her chic figure and shining black tresses are the envy of many a girl. Eva will never be without a friend.

JEAN NORTON

"Gentle in personage." Not a care in the world has she. You can't feel blue very long if Jean is around for she always has you laughing your cares away.

FRANK NUTAITIS

"Yet a mighty genius lies hid under a rough exterior." Looking for a he-man with a determined but witty manner? You've found him in our Frank. Frank's pleasing smile and sense of humor has made him a favorite with everyone who knows him.

ELIZABETH O'KANE

"In every gesture dignity and love." Sweet, neat, and petite are only a few adjectives to describe Liz. When you are with Liz, you are sure of having a good time.

MARLENE OLSHAN

"Much may be said on her behalf." "Ain't she sweet, see her coming down the street. Seems you can't miss Marlene with those flaming red tresses. Her personality is as peppy as her hair is red and she doesn't have a fiery temper!"

ANITA PAPSON

"What is lovely never dies, but passes into other loveliness." "Papper" is a prize package of personality and fun. She is our capable Vice President and one of our high stepping strutters. This gal is sure to be a hit as she was in the Senior Play.

VIOLA PASCOE

"A heaven of charms." This beautiful brunette is well known for her gay smile and friendly ways. She has that certain charm that attracts attention and is sure to get it.

THOMAS PATTON

"Master of the game." Swish! Another two points for Meyers. Tom's basketball ability has been outdone by almost no one. His easy-going manner and friendly way has won for him many friends during his days at Meyers.

JOANNE PAVALONIS

"No legacy is so rich as honesty." Her accordian technique can set any foot a tappin'. Sweet tempered is an adjective that describes our Joanne. With her agreeable personality, we're sure she will have many frinds ad through life.

JOSEPH PERUGINO

"He is great who is what he is from nature." "Peri," as he is known to his score of friends, is truly a man about the class. His good looks are topped off with a vibrant personality and friendly manner.

WILLIAM PETERS

"I do present you with a man of ours, cunning in music." Keyboard Kapers that take your breath away. Bill is just about the most musically inclined member of our class. He does for piano music what Houdini did for magic.

HANNA MAE PHILLIPS

"Her virtues very kind." Hanna is quiet and reserved, but her assuring manner seems to accumulate friends. We know she will have little trouble getting along with everyone always.

CUMMINGS PIATT

"Must share it, happiness was born a twin." This towering 6'1½" tackle has proved himself with the pigskin and in other sports. His frolicsome attitude and happy-go-lucky manner make him well liked by all.

ROBERT PIATT, JR.

"A noble brother." Happy-go-lucky Bobby is a much admired member of the Class. He is the wit of many a classroom. Bobby has displayed marvelous sportsmanship on the football field and will always.

JOANNE PLUTO

"Grace was in her steps, heaven in her eye." The best adjective to describe "Joanie" is "vivid." With her beautiful complexion and extensive wardrobe, she is one of the prettiest girls in our class.

EILEEN POWELL

"Think not I am only what I appear." Looking for a good thing in a small package? Well, here's Eileen. With her effervescent personality and sparkling smile, she has gained many friends.

IDA PRICE

"The mirror of all courtesy." Ida, sweet as apple cider" might have been written for our Ida. Always cheerful, always smiling, Ida will go far on the sea of life.

JOSEPH PRICE

"Handsome is that handsome does." Tall, light, and oh so good looking. Joe's sense of humor is one of rare quality and he can generally be found surrounded by admirers. Don't let this fool you because this great football player is really quite shy—but it's most becoming.

EUGENE REEVE

"Appearance to save, his only care." This practical joker is a pretty popular boy around our school. Gene is the lady's dream man, and oh! what a build. As a guard on the fottball team he spurred us on to victory.

MARGARET ROLLMAN

"Of manners gentle, of affections mild."...Our "Peggy" is one of the sweetest and best liked girls in the Senior Class. She's always smiling, and has a cheerful word at all times. We hope her most fortunate boss will realize that very few possess so many fine qualities—Peggy, your charms are a delight.

PATRICIA SAYLOR

"Some credit is being jolly." We're sure Pat's sincerity and cheerfulness will rate her as one of the best always. This tall, brunette was that striking strutter that captured many an admiring glance.

IRENE SCHIMMEL

"Severe, and resolute, and still, and calm, and self-possessed." "Schim"" is one of our fashion plates with her many clothes. Penn State will certainly appreciate her winning smile and determined manner. She's one person who can truly be called a real pal.

MARY ANN SCHWAB

"Brevity is the soul of wit." Mary Ann is the girl with the choice comments. She can under- take responsibility and do things well. To one with sincerity only good things come.

FRED SCHWARTZ

"The spirit indeed is willing." High in spirit, satisfied with things as they are, and a nice hello for all, that depicts Fred. Dispositions as calm and nice as his are hard to find—don't lose yours.

DONALD SEELEY

"If you do well the joy remains." Encore, Encore, why that boy's terrific! If you haven't heard the mellow strains of Butch's voice, you don't know what you've been missing. With wit and humor too!

RUTH SHAFER

"A cheerful temper joined with innocent will." Dramatic and expressive are two words certainly describing our Ruthie, the hit of the Senior Play. What lovely equipment she'll be for some office.

RITA SHEA

"Gentle of speech, beneficial of mind." This diminutive miss with her sweet ways has attracted many friends during her years at Meyers. This gal was an active member of the Archery Club, and many a boy wouldn't mind being pierced with her arrow.

LUCILLE SHINKO

"Little said is soonest mended." The quiet miss of '56 is glowing with golden charm. Anytime, anywhere, Lucille is willing to help. How nice she is! Sugar couldn't be sweeter.

MARLYN SIMON

"All tongues speak of her." Anyone who saw the Senior Play knows of Marlyn's vivacious personality. Tops in everything she undertakes, and anxious to participate in activities of all kinds. You qualify for a future parallel with the best.

LORETTA SKAFF

"Be merry is you are wise." Dancing is Loretta's favorite pastime, from what we hear she is pretty good at it. Can such a carefree, peppy gal have anything but a life of pep?

MARIE SLABINSKI

"There is in her soul sympathy with sound." Pretty as a picture herself, Marie is going to draw pictures. Wilkes, a career in art, and fun always, that is her goal. Skill and imagination are what you have.

KATHERINE SMITH

"True delicacy is pure refinement." Sweet and simple with only nice things to say. You never see Kathy unless you see her with a pleasant expression on her face. She's terrific—among her pals.

GEORGE SMITH

"The better part of valour is discretion." Intelligence plus a personality to equal it. As our Junior Class speaker he was great. Scholastically, George is on the top of the pile. He is sure to keep our forests a vivid green.

CAROL EDITH SOLOMON

"A fine girl, a fine mind." Carol is a firm believer in her own opinions, and they are usually quite logical. As President of the Kegian Society she showed her leadership. She's sure to possess such qualities always.

MARCIA SPEIZMAN

"Nothing endures like personal quality." How true this is. Marcia, that cute, likeable miss is certainly admired by many. Her activities included just about everything, even being President of the Choir. What terrific spirit.

BARBARA ANN SULLIVAN

"Let me say that she was fair." Listen to the mellow strains of that sax. That's Barb. Not only has she gone far with her music, but she is also a capable athlete. Just think all that talent packed into one gorgeous figure.

CHARLENE VONDERAU

"The pen is the tongue of the mind." Charlene is just about the newest addition to our class and just about the nicest you could hope for. Many a wonderful poem has come from her pen, and many a pleasant word from her tongue. We're glad you came.

JAMES WARD

"Begin, promptly, whatever you have to do." Jimmy is that fun loving, likeable guy who is an asset to any classroom. Of course, his exceptional good looks warrant many admiring glances from the girls. Your disposition will be your guide post to happiness.

BEATRICE WEIDLICH

"A pleasing countenance is no slight advantage." This genuine sweetness that Beatie has is what has made her so outstanding. Beatie never refuses a job and it is always well done.

ELEANOR WHEELER

"Music is well said to be the speech of angels." Ellie is always ready to please. With a beautiful, melodious voice, this gal certainly compliments our Modern Choir. An excellent student and a loyal friend—that she is.

CAROLYN WHITE

"An ounce of mirth is worth a pound of sorrow." Bubbling over with fun and frolic—never a care in the world—you bet it's Carolyn. A beaming smile that is almost always present is hers.

EDWARD WICKHISER

"He is noble in every thought in everyday." Always ready to crack a joke. Surprisingly enough in spite of his humor Ed is really quite shy. The forecast for Ed looks good, because "little said is best done."

JOSEPH WNOROWSKI

"Patience and gentleness is power." Joe is tops on a basketball court, and looks mighty good dribbling that ball. This tall, good looking lad was an active and dependable member of the Student Council. May your stairway to success have only golden footprints.

HILDA WOOD

"By the work, one knows the workmen." Delightful wit, sparkling personality, help us to understand why Hilda has so many friends. She is one who excels frequently, and is also mighty dependable.

EDWARD XANTHOPOULAS

"My appetite comes to me while eating." Small he may be, but big things will surely come his way. His humor was the classroom delight, and his ability on the wrestling mat will always be on the record.

ELEANOR YOUNG

"Her yes once said to you, shall be yes for evermore." This attractive brunette not only excels in her schoolwork, but is active in many extra-curricular activities, such as hockey and basketball. The nicest part of Eleanor's personality is that it never changes.

BERNARD ZATCOFF

"Thoughts too strong to be suppressed." Fun prevails when Bernie is around. This easy going member of our basketball team is a welcome sight at anytime. Bernie can pep anyone up with his clever wit. Accounting will someday claim his fame.

IRA ZATCOFF

"He gains wisdom in a happy way." This intelligent lad can be found joking with his classmates anytime. Ira's quick humor has added much to the excitement of a classroom. Need a good engineer? Just wait a few years and Ira will be ready, willing, and able.

BERNARD ZBIEG

"Modesty becomes a young woman." Her life is devoted to mildness. Never a mean look or an unkind word from this amiable girl. Some people truly deserve the best and this gal certainly does.

MARY ELLEN ZWIEBEL

"A lovely being, sweetly formed and molded." Charming, that's Mary Ellen. No complaints about anyone, and nice to all. Mary Ellen has been a faithful worker on the Elm-print staff, and we know her dependability will never cease. Pretty and precise, is she.

MARK KORNFELD

"From the crown of his head to the soul of his feet he is all mirth." Practically all of Kornfeld's thoughts concern having fun. The rest of them comprise girls. He's Miss Tyburski's "nemesis of the premises." He can stay on our premises anytime, and as long as he wishes.

JACQUELINE THOMAS

"With eyes that looked into the very soul." The picture of innocence, with mischief in her heart. She's a dark haired lass with winning ways. A bright outlook in life will keep her happy perpetually.

Class Song

Dear Meyers High, your hallowed halls
on graduation day,
Bring to our minds fond memories
which we shall take away.

We've spent six years of work and fun
within these sacred walls.
But now our paths will take us far,
where other duty calls.

We never shall forget you,
or let your honor die.
We'll carry on dear Meyers,
with banner ever high.

Words and Music by
Margaret M. Kennedy

Farewell Song

To these, the halls of Meyers High,
The ones we've loved so dear.
On this, our graduation day,
We say farewell fore'er.

To teachers, classmates, one and all,
We sing our parting song.
We know we will remember them,
All thru' the years to come.

Now as we leave thy portals fair,
We hail the blue and gold.
We sing our songs of sad farewell,
As our new life unfolds.

Words and Music by
William D. Peters

Alma Mater

From hall and class thy students come,
From fields thy warriors bold.
To raise with honor, glory, love,
The royal blue and gold.
So now to dear old Meyers High
We proudly stand and sing,
While clear against the azure blue,
Thy honored name we fling.

CHORUS

Loud and long
Let us raise the song of glory
As thy banners of truth
Proudly fly.
On through life, in our hearts
We will cherish
Steadfast forever,
Meyers High.

When we must leave thy guiding hand
To take our place in life,
Then we will keep thy honor clear
Through all our joy and strife.
And when the hand of memory
Rolls back times gathering haze,
We'll pause once more, as now we do,
To sing again thy praise.
